Grand Tuscan living

- Period country property with tower
- Five bedrooms and three baths
- Superb outdoor spaces

Close to the coast and the beautiful town of Lucca, this magnificent property dates back to the 17th century, combining period features with expansive living spaces and immaculate grounds that encompass more than five acres. Especially notable are the delightful outdoor areas, which are bordered by olive trees and include tennis courts, a lemon house, and a verandah with wood-burning stove – perfect for pizza. The pool area occupies a prime position, surrounded by a beautiful garden and overlooked by the spacious pool house, which includes an elegant living space, kitchen, and bath. The pergolas on either side of the villa are the perfect spots in which to relax and soak up the peaceful surroundings. This deluxe offering is completed by a 4,300 sq ft underground garage, a cigar preservation room, and a conditioned cellar for wine and oil storage.
